

Airport Management system.

A small airport needs to keep track of its operations. It decides to establish a database system to do that.

Its requirements as the following :-

- 1- The airport has a manager for each of its departments. But at certain times, the department may not have a manager.
- 2- A department have several planes.
- 3- Each plane has a registration number, a model number, a capacity, and weight.
- 4- Each department has a number of pilots.
- 5- Both manager and pilot have data kept on their social security number, name, address, and telephone number.
- 6- Each pilot has license number.
- 7- For each flight we keep track of the flight number, date of flying, the registration number of the Plane, departure time, arrival time, destination, and hours flying.
- 8- Passenger may reserve (ي حجز) (one, or more seats on each flights

Requirements

Build tables on SQL Server , draw relationship between tables then create procedure to perform these 10 SQL statements

- 1- display the name of each pilot and the name of his manager.
- 2- display the model number of each plane that will be used in a flight to USA last week.
- 3- display the maximum capacity of the flight number 1200
- 4- Perform a report that display the flight number of first flight to Paris
- 5- Perform a report that display a details of pilot information and flight information who will is responsible for.
- 6- display the flights information that will be arrived after 1 Hours
- 7- display the number of pilots in each department
- 8- display the number of the planes in each department that arrived in last 3 days
- 9- Display the number of passengers in each flight and information about their pilot.

10- display the manager 's name of the department that contains maximum
أذكر اسم مدير القسم الذي به أكبر عدد من الطائرات planes of number